In this six-session small group Bible study, Pursuing God's Beauty, Margaret Feinberg looks at six stories of beauty from the Gospel of John that illustrate how God's beauty is present in our lives. This pack includes one softcover Participant Guide and one DVD. God created us to be drawn toward beauty--created us to pursue beauty so that we might know more about His character, attributes, and work in our world. Perhaps no book of the Bible paints a clearer picture of this than the Gospel of John. Throughout John's Gospel, the beauty of God radiates in the person of Jesus Christ--the one in whom God displayed His whole heart for the world to see. It's within the person of Jesus that we find the invisible attributes of God being made visible, on display like fine pieces of artwork--to be enjoyed, celebrated, and reflected on. This Participant Guide includes six sessions that can be adapted to any number of weeks, while the DVD features six live teaching sessions from Margaret Feinberg. Sessions include: 1. Encountering Jesus (John 1 - 3) 2. When God Sees through You (John 4 - 8) 3. Recognizing the Blind Spots (John 9 - 11) 4. When Worship Costs More than Expected (John 12 - 17) 5. Mistakes that Refine Instead of Define (John 18 - 19) 6. The Hope and Healing of Resurrection (John 20 - 21)

"Don't Listen For the Voice of God. Listen for His Echo." When God really wants to get your attention, he doesn't just say something once. He echoes. He speaks through a Sunday sermon, a chance conversation with a friend the next day, even a random email. The same theme, idea, impression, or lesson will repeat itself in surprising and unexpected ways until you realize that maybe, just maybe, God is at work. According to author Margaret Feinberg, the repetitive nature of a sacred echo gives us confidence that God really is prompting, guiding, or leading. The sacred echo reminds us to pay close attention -- something important may be going on here. The sacred echo challenges us to prayerfully consider how God is at work in our life as well as in the lives of those around us. The sacred echo is an invitation to spiritual awakening. Margaret writes, "I want a relationship with God where prayer is as natural as breathing. If God is the one in whom we are to live and move and have our being, then I want my every inhale infused with his presence, my every exhale an extension of his love." If that's your desire too, let Sacred Echo be your guide to a deeper, more rewarding relationship with the God of the universe.

When the Christian church was first forming in the time of the apostles, a heresy that still threatens the church today called Gnosticism started to form. This heresy was battled by the writings of Irenaeus to correct theological thinking about God, Jesus and the Bible at large. This early church father was instrumental in fighting false teaching in the early centuries when there were a lot of questions about the legitimacy of Christianity in the face of the persecutions of the Roman Empire.
