It has been a well-known fact that astrology was called the eye of the Vedas, for it threw light on matters relating to timing events. The conduct of Vedic rituals had to be timed at a specific period, hence astrology was put to this use. In the modern context, this divine science is used to interpret birth charts to have an overview of an individual's personal and professional future in terms of success and prosperity. The book deals with this analysis at great length and enlightens a lay reader about the subject.

"This book presents the ancient Hindu astrology in its occult and esoteric aspects. Traditional practitioners often failed to defend the veracity of the subject and dispel the scepticism of modern intellectuals. The ancient revelations have been restated here to meet contemporary requirements. The ancient seers presented Vedic Astrology under various assumptions and in allegorical and symbolic languages. They assumed polydimensional extension of human consciousness which was closely related with planetary impulses. Apart from the general approach to this ancient science, the study presents in depth the astrological description of the nature of man. It also provides deeper implications of various planetary combinations. Advanced practitioners as well as general readers will find the book informative, illuminating and highly rewarding.

and was quoted in later compositions like Prashnamarg, Vidhy m dhaviyam and Rudra's commentary on Vrihad Jataka. The Malayalam literary composition like nniyaccicaritam carries citation from this great grantha. The earliest mention can be cited from Shri Govinda Bhattatiri of alakkulam (a.d 1237-95) who quoted it frequently. Shri Vishnu the son of M dhavaacharya has written the Sanskrit commentary caturasundari, which is included in this work. Sriyut Puliyur Puru ottam ambudiri wrote the Malayalam commentary. This Grantha is the magnum opus of Horary astrology because of its historical value. This grantha is unique and different from most of the Jyotisha granthas. The grantha is neither too short nor too descriptive. The author mentions that he has done it intentionally so readers should not lose the interest or it should not become too complex.
